

6516208103.txt

I find the attempt by Broadcasters to stiffle Satelite radio from instant weather and traffic reports appalling. I am a small business owner of a trucking company and we have XM receivers in all our trucks. We find the reports useful in our business. It enables us to safely dispatch and drive our trucks. Banning Instant Traffic & Weather Channels is a precursor to the possibility of banning satelite radio all together. It is also an infringement on fair trade and competition.